

Aftermath implies the moment when the smoke has cleared and one looks around at a world that is no longer the same.

Aftermath is a condition of potential, arising in the wake of destruction. The theme of AFTERMATH hopes to establish the broad topic of the re-building or re-founding of lives and institutions after destructive events.

The studio invites students to think of potentials and re-design about post industrial, "terrain vague" areas, factories, depots, warehouses..

AFTERMATH

ASSOC. PROF. DR. FUNDA UZ

ASSIST. FURKAN BALCI